

INDEPENDENCE DAY DRAWS SOCIETY TO CITY

Three Vanderbilt Heiresses to Become Brides in Autumn

Engagements Announced of Misses Hammond, Morris and Schieffelin, Great-Great-Granddaughters of Commodore Vanderbilt.

THREE Vanderbilt heiresses will become brides this autumn. They are Misses Emily Sloane Hammond, Louise Morris and Louise Vanderbilt Schieffelin, all cousins and great-granddaughters of the late William H. Vanderbilt and great-granddaughters of Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt.

Miss Hammond is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Hammond and a granddaughter of Mrs. Henry White, who formerly was Mrs. William Douglas Sloane. She will be married to Mr. John M. Franklin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip A. S. Franklin of this city, on September 9 in St. Mark's Church, Mount Kisco. A reception will be held at Delwood, the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Hammond at Mount Kisco. Miss Adele S. Hammond will be her bridesmaid.

The other attendants will be the Misses Alice F. and Rachel Hammond, also sisters; Miss Louise Morris, a cousin; Miss Betty Franklin, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Mary Hebard and Mrs. Henry Hutton Landon, Jr., who before her marriage on June 10 was Miss Cornelia Sage.

Mr. Franklin was graduated from Harvard in 1913 and served as a Captain in the 301st Battalion of heavy tanks of the British third army and the Second American corps. He was decorated with the British Military Cross.

Miss Morris, who is the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hennen Morris, and Miss Schieffelin, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Jay Schieffelin, are granddaughters of the late Elliott F. Shepard and Mrs. Shepard, who was Miss Margaret Vanderbilt, eldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William H. Vanderbilt. Miss Morris will become the bride of Mr. Dudley Holbrook Mills early in November. Miss Morris was graduated this year from Vassar. She is a granddaughter of the late Chief Justice Alfred Hennen of New Orleans and a granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John A. Morris. Mrs. Morris, who was Miss Cora Hennen of New Orleans, was considered one of the beauties of her day, died April 11 at her residence, 755 Park avenue.

Mr. Mills is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Mills of this city. His father at one time was connected with the Chase National Bank and was a partner with J. P. Morgan & Co. Mr. Thomas in the International Silver Company. He was graduated from Princeton in 1915, and received his degree of A. M. from Harvard two years later.

Miss Schieffelin's engagement to Mr. Abram S. Hewitt was announced on Tuesday, and their marriage in all probability will take place in the early autumn. Miss Schieffelin, through her father, represents the fifth generation in descent from John Jay, the first Chief Justice of the United States, and through him also is descended from the founder of the firm of Schieffelin & Co. in existence for more than a century. She is one of nine children. The Schieffelin family at present is at Tranquillity Farm, the country home at Asheville, N. C.

Mr. Hewitt, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ringwood Hewitt, is the youngest of four children. He is a grandson of the late Mayor Abram S. Hewitt, for whom he was named, and a great-grandson of Peter Cooper, philanthropist and founder of Cooper Union. He is a nephew of the late Peter Cooper Hewitt, the inventor of the incandescent lamp. His father, Mr. Edward Ringwood Hewitt, is a nephew of the late Peter Cooper Hewitt, the inventor of the incandescent lamp. His father, Mr. Edward Ringwood Hewitt, is a nephew of the late Peter Cooper Hewitt, the inventor of the incandescent lamp.

Mr. Henry Sturgis Morgan whose engagement to Miss Schieffelin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Francis Adams of Boston, was announced a few days ago, will be the third member of the family to marry a Boston girl. His mother is Miss Jane Norton Grew of that city, and his elder brother, Mr. Junius Spencer Morgan Jr., married Miss Louise Cooper of Boston. Mr. Morgan is the youngest of the four children of Mr. and Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan of 231 Madison avenue. His father is head of the international banking firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., and is one of the foremost financial figures in this country. At present he is actively engaged in the problems of reconstruction in Europe and adjustment in this country. Young Mr. Morgan is a grandson of the late J. Pierpont Morgan who died in 1913, and a nephew of the late J. P. Morgan & Co. L. Tracy. He is a member of Harvard class 1923. His marriage will not take place until after he has completed his college course.

Miss Adams is a member of the Vincent Club. Her parents in winter live at 177 Commonwealth avenue, Boston. The country home is at Cohasset, and Fairhaven Bay, Concord.

The marriage of Miss Dorothy S. Bostwick, daughter of Mrs. Fitch Gilbert, Jr., of 801 Fifth avenue, to Mr. Sampson Smith, son of Captain Roy C. Smith, U. S. N. retired and Mrs. Smith, will take place tomorrow afternoon in Christ Church, Gilbertville, N. Y. A reception will be held at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert. Miss Bostwick's father was the late Albert C. Bostwick, wealthy sportsman and automobile collector who died several years ago. She is a granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jabez Bostwick whose home for nearly half a century was at 800 Fifth avenue. The elder Mr. Bostwick left great fortune, principally in Standard Oil securities, part of which was inherited by Miss Bostwick.

Mr. Smith is a grandson of the late Rear Admiral William T. Sampson, for whom he was named.

On Tuesday in Christ Church, Riverdale, N. Y., Miss Kathleen Eleanor James, daughter of the late William James, chief contractor in the Royal Navy, Plymouth, England, became the bride of Mr. Eckford de Kay, eldest son of the late Sidney de Kay and Mrs. de Kay of 50 West 9th street. Only members of the two families and a few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony which was performed by the Rev. Dr. Glenn W. White, the rector. The bride was given away by Mr. Wallace P. Cohoe. The ceremony was fol-
